

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 28, 2025 | FIRST SUNDAY OF CHRISTMAS

As we celebrate the Twelve Days of Christmas, our gospel today confronts us with the death of innocent children at the hands of Herod. The birth of Christ does not remove the power of evil from the world, but its light gives us hope as we walk with all the "holy innocents" of past generations and today who have suffered unjustly. In our gathering around word and meal, God continues to redeem us, lift us up, and carry us as in the days of old.

At the request of congregation leadership, David Clark has been authorized by the synod bishop to preach and preside at the sacrament of Holy Communion December 28, 2025. David is not an ordained pastor. The authorization is granted in accord with the ELCA's guiding statement, The Use of the Means of Grace, which says, "In witness this sacrament is a celebration of the Church, serving its unity, an ordained minister presides in the service of Holy Communion and proclaims the Great Thanksgiving. Where it is not possible for an extended period of time to provide ordained pastoral leadership, a synod bishop may authorize a properly trained lay person to preside for a specified period of time and in a given location only."
