A Pastor's Ramblings...

Easter is 50-day reflection on and celebration of hope in God's promised future, which intersects with the present. Hope is often a tenacious and elemental thing. Our loving and gracious God gives us hope each new day. Easter is good news for all of humanity. It is God's gift of new life and hope. Jesus's resurrection from death breaks the cords of death and opens up the gates into eternity. It is the victory of our God; who keeps coming into the world to bring life. Hope comes stealing into our hearts and lives, as God's Word keeps doing its work. In Hebrews, we read, "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." That leads me to birding. Okay, maybe a surprising segue. But, hear me out, there are many parallels, I believe, between birding and living the Christian life.

Paying Attention: One of the things I've learned as a "birder" (someone who enjoys, looks for and studies birds) is that you have to be present in the moment and pay close attention to your surroundings, and to the songs and other features of birds. This will help you identify a bird. Honesty means you want to be sure of your ID, and it takes study. So, in our lives of faith, it is important to pay attention to others when they are talking. To give them our full attention. This takes some effort. Non-judgmental listening, with a sympathetic ear, is a gift to another. To spouse, or co-worker, or friend. True listening, paying attention to the other, is an act of respect and kindness. It says: You matter to me.

Being open to the adventure: Birding is an adventure, and I love to go afield to hike, look and observe. Binoculars help. A spirit of adventure makes this all the more interesting and even exciting. So, the life of faith is also an adventure. We are invited to follow God's cues, be open to the adventure of trusting God, allowing him to guide us. We venture into each new day, hopefully trusting God who is with us, above us, and hidden in our neighbor.

Delighting in new sightings: Seeing a new bird is always a thrill for a birder. On a morning walk today, I spotted a Ruby-crowned Kinglet, a bird I've only seen twice before. Each time I've seen one, it has raised the small red crest on its head, which it does when excited, or agitated. I spent a full two minutes watching this acrobatic, tiny bird, as it flitted from limb to limb of a spruce tree, near the sidewalk. It was a joy to see it and was a "new sighting" for this year. Have you ever read something in the Bible, or heard a sermon, or prayed a prayer, or been with family, or in a study and had an 'aha' moment. Eureka! A new insight or discovery. We learn, we grow, we find delight in new insights, in renewed faith, in new friendships.

Going for a walk is a tried and true way for seeing birds, and it's also a good way to allow God's creation to brighten our day. I often find that taking a walk is like a breath of fresh air. It opens up my mind and heart – much like those two men walking on the Road to Emmaus, to whom the risen Christ appeared. He opened the Scriptures to them, and when they broke bread together, they recognized him. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' We can be surprised by what we see, think, feel, or whom (or what) we meet, on a walk.

Joy in old friends returned: Seeing the Wood Ducks, Swans and Robins return in the spring is like seeing old friends again. So, we have “old friends” whom we cherish. We may not see them often, but we know they will always be our friends. Christ is the friend who is more than just a friend, he is also Lord and Savior.

Hope in the future: Just as a birder has hopes for birds they’ll see as spring and summer unfolds, so, those of us in the Jesus Movement are captives of hope. We can look forward to life because God’s good news is come. The resurrection of Jesus breaks into our lives – our despair, our brokenness, our sense that things are not right in the world, and turns our mourning into dancing, our hopelessness into hopefulness, our gray to blue sky and sunlight.

Christ is risen. He is risen, indeed, Alleluia!

Pastor Dan

Dear Church Family!

We are going on a mission trip!! I want to share with you about an exciting opportunity that Fusion is doing this summer. 17 youth and adults are going on a mission trip to the Blue Ridge Mountains in Rutherford County, NC July 17th-23rd with an organization called YouthWorks! Here are the youth and adults who are signed up to go! Youth: Piper Swanson, Sarah Dougherty, Micah Ulrich, Jason Christians, Isaac Just, David Black Jr., Truett Richards, Evan Oberg, Lilia Asmus, Hannah Schneider, Bryn Loneragan, Wesley Richards & Jayden Marquart. Adults: Heather & David Black, Pastor Chris Richards & Amy Dougherty.

On this trip our group will experience the great beauty of both people and nature in the scenic small towns that surround the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina. By participating in children's ministry, completing work projects and supporting local ministries, we'll make connections with the people of the area while addressing some significant needs. We may serve at a food pantry, clothing distribution center, soup kitchen, or by assisting with youth programming at a local YMCA. We may also serve through community beautification projects, gardening, painting, yard work or assisting with simple work projects and minor home repair projects. YouthWorks has served the Blue Ridge community since 2006 but recently moved the site to Spindale in Rutherford County, NC. in summer 2021.

Would you be willing to partner with us by praying? Prayer is so essential to the success of this trip. I would love it if you would partner with us by being in prayer for this mission trip experience! Specifically, in these areas:

- Pray for the 17 of us who are going – that we would be open to learning from the community we're visiting and that we grow closer as a team and closer to Jesus.
- Pray for the YouthWorks staff who are living in the Blue Ridge Mountains all summer and will be leading us during the trip.
- Pray for the community members who we meet – that we could love and honor them well.

Would you also consider partnering with us financially? The cost of this trip is $800 per person. Like a "real" missionary, we have challenged the youth to raise their own support to help fund this trip. Would you consider investing them and in the lives of the people of Rutherford County, NC? Something to note, each youth have already given $200 of their own money, have written support letters to family and friends and will be participating in other various fundraisers.

Thank you for taking time to read this letter! I ask that you prayerfully consider supporting us through prayer and/or with a financial gift. Whatever you decide to do, whether to pray or give generously, please let us know by filling out the attached response slip. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to reach out! Heatherblack.fusion@gmail.com

THANK YOU! – Heather Black
